Finds of Textile Fragments and Evidence of Textile Production from a Major Excavation Site of Grand Moravia in Mikulčice (South Moravia, Czech Republic)

Presentation of the processing and analysis of textile fragments preserved in the corrosive layers of metal items, primarily from tomb finds at the site of the Grand Moravian fortified settlement in Mikulčice and its surroundings. It includes several dozens of various fabrics preserved on the surface of items left in tombs dated to the 8th through 10th centuries. Besides the textile finds, some direct evidence of textile production at the location will be presented in the form of textile production tools.

The presented finds from Mikulčice represent the largest set of textile fragments from the Early Middle Ages which have been found and processed in the Czech Republic.
